Attitude is everything” — Maya Angelou “Believe in the goodness of our natural human spirit, that our essential nature, despite the outer form which may become distorting, is basically loving, basically gentle” — Joseph Campbell “A good teacher is one who shows you the way, but doesn't make you go it alone. A good teacher is there when you need him and then he sends you on your way” — Maya Angelou “To create anything at all, a man must start by doing something, and he must keep on doing it. The question is not what can I do for others; the question is what can I do for myself. When you realize that, you will begin to live, and you will find that you are forever discovering new ways to live.” — David Brooks

“Excellence is the perpetual imitation of the very best example of a thing.” — Thomas Carlyle “A mind well-bred in childhood seldom wavers in the race for excellence.” — Richard Brinsley Sheridan “We are all born surrounded by the dead and dying, and we are living in the world. We are here and we have been given a lot of strange rules and then we have to do a lot of things. It is not the easiest thing to do. Life is hard.” — Alice Walker “I think a certain amount of excellence is an absolute need of society. If people aren't excellent, they're going to overrun each other.” — Mark Twain “One of the best pieces of advice I have ever received was to live in the present and let the past be the past. I don't have to concern myself with the past. It cannot change the future. The future is my responsibility, and I must live for the
